Thanks . . .

The Saskatchewan Association of Music Festivals and also the local Festival Executive tender their sincere thanks to the managing boards of Knox-Metropolitan United Church, Scott Collegiate, Regina Public Library, First Baptist Church and St. Paul's Parish Hall, Darke Hall, First Presbyterian Church, for permission to use their buildings. Without them it would hardly be possible to hold the Festival in Regina.

Our thanks are due to Heintzman & Co., who have loaned the Heintzman pianos being used at the Festival buildings. The Association is not a money-making organization, and assistance such as the above aids our operations.

The Regina Branch, Saskatchewan Association of Music Festivals, wishes to thank the University of Saskatchewan and the Saskatchewan Arts Board, for the financial assistance extended to the Association, and also to all the firms and institutions who have used our programme as a means to convey their various messages to the public.

ROBERT IRWIN L.R.A.M.

Robert Irwin is making his third tour of the Canadian Festivals—the first time was in 1957.

He has been singing all his life, beginning in Dublin, Ireland, where he was born. He sang throughout the British Isles and the continent of Europe.

He is one of the B.B.C.'s foremost commentators on music and his services as a festival adjudicator are in constant demand.

Mr. Irwin sang as a boy in the choir of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin.

On reaching the age of 21, Irwin began his career as a baritone singer and for many years was well-known throughout his native land to concert and radio audiences. He also appeared with the world-famous Gate and Abbey Theatre Companies.

In 1937 he met John McCormack, who encouraged him to go further afield. Soon after the outbreak of war, Mr. McCormack embarked on a tour of concerts in aid of the Red Cross and other war charities. Irwin was invited to take part as an assisting artist and with his famous fellow countryman, gave some forty concerts throughout Great Britain.

ALEXANDER LEONARD LEE A.R.M.

Early training in British Army Military Bands. Attended Royal Military School of Music. A.R.C.M. in 1958; Musician in Canadian Bands since 1948. Presently Director of Music, R.C.H.A. Band, since 1961.

The Organ Postlude

Played by E. A. Moore, organist Knox-Metropolitan Church.

It is a very real pleasure for me to once again welcome everyone attending the 51st Annual Musical Festival in Regina.

The citizens of Regina owe a debt of gratitude to the tireless organizers of these Festivals for their unbounded zeal and efficiency, and their devotion to the cause of fine music in our City. It is through their efforts that budding young artists gain confidence in their own ability and the experience necessary to go on and win greater acclaim.

On behalf of the citizens of Regina, I extend a very warm welcome to everyone participating in the 1964 Festival. I sincerely hope it will enjoy the large measure of success that it deserves.

H. H. P. BAKER,
 Mayor.

Encore for Baldwin

Official Piano and Organ,
New York World's Fair, 1964-65

Baldwin pianos and organs have been named the official instruments for the New York World's Fair 1964-65. Once again, the attention of the world will be directed to the superior quality of Baldwin pianos and organs at a great international gathering. Baldwin achieved similar recognition at the Seattle World's Fair in 1962, and at the American Pavilion of the Brussels World's Fair in 1958. Thus, Baldwin continues a distinguished tradition of going to fairs and coming home with honors, begun long ago with the Grand Prix at Paris in 1900 and the Grand Prize at St. Louis in 1904.
